

Religious Regionalism in 1921

Try This:

- Open the interactive map “Religious Adherence, 1921.”
- Click on the “Zoom to” drop-down menu and select “Southern Ontario”, and examine the map.
- Using the “Zoom to” drop-down menu select “Southern Québec” and “The Prairies”, each in turn, and examine the maps.

Notice ...

- Dominant religions in 1921 were clustered regionally: Roman Catholics in Québec, Methodists in Ontario, and Presbyterians on the Prairies.

Consider!

- Nowhere in Canada were non-Christians predominant in 1921.
